

TAMPICO SCUTTLE A CRAVEN AFFAIR, SAYS ROOSEVELT

Constituted So Grave an Offense
Against the Nation's Honor and Duty That the Man Responsible Should Be Removed From Office.

WILSON CANNOT SHIELD HIMSELF BEHIND DANIELS

Authentic Proof That Americans in Peril Were Deserted by Their Own Government Against the Protest of the Senior Naval Officer Present
Most Pusillanimous Episode in the Naval Annals of Our Country.

Theodore Roosevelt in a letter to Henry Reuterthal, the naval critic, criticizes President Wilson and Secretary Daniels in connection with the Tampico affair, when the American warships were withdrawn by order of the Administration. The colonel says: "You have presented authentic proof of how the Americans in peril at Tampico were deserted by their own government against the protest of the senior American naval officer present. You have shown that the government at Washington had full knowledge of the danger of the situation through telegrams from Admiral Mayo sent by wireless to the navy department on April 11, 12 and 13. You also give the telegram of Mr. Daniels of April 20 directing the admiral to proceed to Vera Cruz.

Mayo Feared Loss of Life. "You have shown that Admiral Mayo made an emphatic protest to the navy department, stating that he feared the result of the squadron's leaving would be the loss of American lives and property. You also quote the telegrams sent by Admiral Mayo the following day, containing the protest of the American consul, Mr. Miller, and requesting authority to remain at Tampico. You have shown that, nevertheless, the navy department on the 21st confirmed its previous orders and directed the ships to leave at once.

"You have shown that the admiral put out into the ocean eight miles distant, but received a protest from Consul Miller reiterating his demand for protection. You then quote the telegrams and signals of Admiral Mayo, who, in spite of his orders, nobly refused to run from the post of duty while the lives of American men, women and children were in danger."

Can't Hide Behind Daniels. Of the President and Secretary Daniels the colonel writes:

"President Wilson cannot shield himself behind Mr. Daniels, for Mr. Daniels could do nothing that the president does not order or sanction. When Mr. Daniels' actions have been brought to the attention of Mr. Wilson, and are not repudiated by him, they become Mr. Wilson's; and Mr. Wilson is fully and completely responsible for Mr. Daniels, for all that he has done and left undone.

"The proof is absolute that when Admiral Mayo was at Tampico he had received full knowledge of the rioting and of the imminent danger to American lives; but that, nevertheless, he steamed away into the ocean, and that the Americans were rescued by German and British ships. This action constituted so grave an offense from the standpoint of national duty and self-respect, that any man responsible for it should be at once taken out of office.

Facts Made Public in U. S. "Shortly thereafter the facts were made public in the United States. If Admiral Mayo had been responsible and had not acted under orders, then the only proper course for Secretary Daniels would have been to order his instant court-martial, and in such case the failure to do so would have shifted the blame at once from the shoulders of Admiral Mayo to the shoulders of superiors, President Wilson and Secretary Daniels.

"Therefore, even if these telegrams did not exist, even if there had been no such orders, or those actually issued by the secretary of the navy to Admiral Mayo, nevertheless his superiors, Secretary Daniels and President Wilson, would both have become fully responsible for the guilty transaction by their acquiescence therein. They cannot, as they have sought to do, shift the blame to the shoulders of the admiral."

The Soldier Vote.

A significant feature following the Maine election was the nature of the soldier vote.

It is reported that one Maine battalion hiked sixty miles in two days for the purpose of exercising the franchise.

And we know how they voted!

Latin politeness is proverbial, but aren't these Mexican commissioners exceeding the limit when they persist in likening Woodrow Wilson to Venustiano Carranza?

Josephus Daniels might have made a passable secretary of the Salvation Navy, but it was pretty rough to impose him on Uncle Sam's fighting navy.

DR. HARVEY W. WILEY
TO VOTE FOR HUGHES.

He Says Wilson Has Failed to Enforce Pure Food Law.

"I favor the election of Mr. Hughes to the Presidency for entirely different reasons than those held by most of his supporters. It is not because of the Mexican policy nor the foreign policy of the administration nor by reason of its domestic policies. It is because of the apparent indifference of the administration of President Wilson to the cause of pure foods and drugs. Practically all of the abuses which were injected into the pure food law by the preceding administrations are still in force. Benzene of soda is still rampant. The fumes of burning sulphur are marching along undisturbed. There is evidently a full and free activity of the administration of the law. A well-known beverage, declared by the supreme court misbranded and amenable to the food law has not been molested. No attempt has been made to enforce the law in regard to the bleaching of flour. The repeal of the mixed flour law, that splendid safeguard to the purity of our bread, has been tacitly approved by the treasury department.

"Mr. Hughes in his activities on the supreme court has stood like a stone wall for the proper administration of the food law. I believe his election would see a radical change in the attitude of the government towards pure food and pure drugs, so vital to the welfare of our people. For this reason I sincerely hope that Mr. Hughes may be chosen as our next president.

"I should expect Mr. Hughes as president to have the same attitude toward the pure food and drug law that he had as a judge on the bench and to appoint a secretary of agriculture with subordinate officers who would be enthusiastic and earnest in the enforcement of the pure food law for the benefit of the physical, mental and moral welfare of our people."

The president gets up early during the hot spell, and there are some who think he may have to continue the practice until November if that man Hughes continues to be so undignified.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kinsley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkie motored to Mt. Mansfield Saturday. They camped at Smuggler's Notch at night and returned home Sunday.

The Book and Thimble club will entertain the clubs of Barton in the chapel of Congregational church Wednesday, Oct. 4. All members of the Book and Thimble club are urged to be present.

Visitors in the school last week were Supt. Erwin, Mrs. L. A. Ross of Sheffield, Mrs. J. A. Kendrick, Paul Heidger, Mrs. Mary Wylie, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. J. West, and Mrs. Hunt.

Over 100 Masons from this and surrounding towns attended the funerals of C. M. Anderson at Orleans and J. M. Wyman at Brownington Sept. 17. Mr. Anderson was one of the oldest members of the lodge, having been a Mason 52 years.

On Thursday evening a reception was given the past matrons and past patrons of Invervale Chapter, No. 61, O. E. S., at the Masonic hall. A short literary and musical program was given and dainty refreshments were served. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and each matron and patron was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

A very enjoyable meeting of the librarians of Essex, Caledonia and Orleans counties was held at the Congregational church Sept. 20th, under the auspices of the Book and Thimble club. A literary and musical program was rendered both afternoon and evening. Mrs. E. A. Demick, Mrs. C. C. Willey, Mrs. F. A. Donaldson and Miss Hazel Harris ushered at both meetings. Supper was served the guests and officers of the club at 6 o'clock.

The W. C. T. U. gathering held with Mrs. Guild Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 19, was a success from all points. It was the reception to new members. Nineteen ladies and three honorary members were received with several more to join in the near future. Mrs. Keyes was the winning captain and received the blue ribbon. Mrs. Smithers returned the first mile-of-dimes card and Mrs. Howe returned three cards, each receiving a special remembrance. Mrs. Pearson received the ribbon from her captain for getting the most members. Miss Hazel Harris and Miss Dale Whipple entertained with fine music. Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. Guild gave addresses on the work at large, refreshments were served, a social hour enjoyed and the sick and shut-ins were remembered with boxes from the table, the whole making a red-letter day in the work.

FINNEGAN'S PHILOSOPHY.

On The Merry-Go-Round.

"Faith an' now Wilson's for protection. Four year ago he was agin it, for it was agin the constychooshun. Now that he is for it, that immortal instrument has also changed its mind. He makes me head swim.

"But I've good company. Bryan an' Garrison, the civil service Dimyrcrats, and the rale Dimyrcrats, the Passyflats an' the vulgar sows that's none 'Too Proud to Fight'—they've all been on the Merry-go-round. Some iv thim turned sick.

"God bless ye—ye're a good man, but ye make me dizzy," says Bryan, leppin' from the Hobby-Horse and runnin' for the woods. "I've a gnywine raygrit at losin' ye," says Wudthrow throwin' him a Cocked-Hat iv the vintage of 1900.

"Here's the Army bill," says Garrison. "How does it suit?" he axes.

"Fine," says Wudthrow, "barrin' a few changes. 'Ye'll redraw it,' he says, 'to provide,' says he, 'voluntary universal service in a Federal Military,' says he, 'controlled be the states,' says he; 'an recruited be spiritual compulsion,' says he. 'It shud be nayther too large nor too small,' says he; 'or maybe both,' he says; 'an the ammyntion,' says he, 'must be nayther too much, nor too little,' says he. 'I've to see Hay, before I decide the daytales, for 'tis me jooty to kape an open mind,' says Wudthrow.

"Stop the music and lave me off," says Garrison. "Are ye crazy or am I? Garrison moans, layin' on his back an gazin' wildly at th' sky. 'God bless ye,' says Wudthrow. 'I've a near-real raygrit at losin' you,' he says. And as Garrison beats it to Jarsey the Merry-go-Round plays a side step.

"F'what iv the Navy,' says Kitchin. 'It shud be thur'y adquate ivrywhere,' says the Great Idylitist, 'except in Montany, where we need no Navy,' says he, 'and in St. Louey, where it shud be the biggest in the world. We'll be none extravragant like thim Raypublicans,' says he, 'so here's the Dimyrcrat bill ye'll pass,' says he.

"But this same is the Raypublican's bill," says Kitchin. "Ye'll go an' pass it," says Wudthrow, poundin' the desk. "Hearay," says Kitchin. "Raypublicans votin' for the bill. 'Do I dream,' says Kitchin. 'If I iver drank, I'd think I was boozed,' says Kitchin in a thremblin' vice. And he falls off.

"How about the Army bill,' axes Hay.

"Through an' instant preparation for defense must be the wurd," says Wudthrow, wid heroic ris'tution in his eye.

"I have here a bill," says Hay, 'providin' for an increase iv five hundthor men a year for twenty year,' he says; 'an' amynishun for six hours' acksun,' he says; 'twill make us safe from maddygasker, measles, muckrakin', millit-rism and marital infidility,' he says; 'an' we'll catch Villy before he dies av he doant die before we catch him,' says Hay.

"Embrace me," says Wilson. "Oh Hay—after all preparedness is a matter iv the heart an' not of guns or forts. Did Cleveland ivir give ye a job? he axes, stoppin' short like.

"Divil a wan," says Hay. "Thin' says Wudthrow shakin' the both iv Hay's hands cordial like, 'for yer patriotic service in so bravely supportin' me policies,' he says, 'in all their phrases,' he says; 'I make a judge iv ye,' he says, 'as well as yer frind that ye put in the Joker,' says the President. 'Howly Saints,' says the preparation Sniters.

"Ph-what does this mean at all at all?' they axes. 'I've the wan thrack mind,' says the President, 'an' ye go all through me train iv thought before ye come to the pork car,' says he. 'Are ye on?' axes the Apostle iv Common Counsels.

"We're on," says the Sniters, fallin' off. An' the Merry-go-round plays a Wilson Waltz (which ye know, Jawn, is wan step forward, two steps back, hesitate and' sldestep). An' Tumulty goes out to spread the glad tidin' that the preparation p'rade will be led be the President in person.

"How does he save his face?' asked Malumphy.

"Wid his mouth," responded Finnegan dryly.

OH YOU JOSEPHUS!

This is a free advertisement for "Life," issue of September 14:

If you want to find a reflection of your own inward opinion of the present amiable, inconsequential and befuddling Secretary of the Navy, here 'tis; for "Life" dedicates an entire issue to our own officious, omniscient, ontological, oleaginuous, obligarchical Sir Joe-sea-fuss!

Also, with a mind to the juice that has made our State and Navy Departments famous, "Life" proposes this toast:

"Grape Nuts! Bryan and Daniels!"
Hic Jacet!

Of the 38 electors who cast Pennsylvania's vote for Roosevelt in 1912, 35 are living and 27 of them have pledged, untiedly, their support to Mr. Hughes.

The President must be credited with having put a slick one over if he can get the votes and make the people pay the freight.
